

I am Jen Buntin and I want to be your Woman's Officer for 2010/11!
I am a second year Radiography student and this is why you should vote for me:

I have been involved with the university welfare dept since I began uni in 2008- through this I have been involved in campaigns including personal safety and sexual health. I am a member of of GCU Kayak Club and I successfully established GCU's first Music Society. My involvement within the university to date has inspired me to take on a more leading role with the Students Association and Student body itself. I have gained an insight into the issues surrounding female students and I am eager to support them further.

- 1- I am committed to developing the link between female students and the university. You will see the participation of students in the university increase through my support and encouragement and by providing a drop-in session in line with the Women's Group. With main focus on representation at CSP level.
- 2- From my role in Welfare, the issue of personal safety was raised on various occasions. I will enhance the student awareness on this issue through working closely with the welfare dept and from continuing to provide female self-defence classes.
- 3- Support and work alongside the student executive on all campaigns and motions.

GCU WOMANS GROUP

The Women's Group is a prime focus of my role. I want to increase the number of attendees and raise the profile of the group. I want to encourage more student involvement than in previous years in both the Women's Group and in other societies in the Student's Association.

FEMALE STUDENT REPRESENTATION

The student voice is important to how the university is run. Our influence and opinions guide the decisions made at CSP. If elected, I will actively encourage all female class reps to attend CSP and Caledonian Conference, and step up to have their voice heard. I intend to provide support to all female students by assisting and presenting a positive message to all.
